

Mommy/Daddy & Me Classes

These classes provide the opportunity for you and your little one to be as imaginative and as messy as you want... and leave the clean-up to us!

Class: My Heart Belongs to Mommy Plate

With the "My Heart Belongs to Mommy" Class we will be exploring simple layering techniques as well as transferring lettering and stamping your little ones Handprint Heart. After a short break the next step would be to use our easy-to-use fun writer bottles to trace over the transferred wording and fill in to whom your tot loves: Nana, Papa, Daddy, Mommy! What a truly unique gift made by you and your child to love and cherish.
